DEATH BECKONS J. M. JONES, A REAL PIONEER

Was Father T. Lacey Jones, and Prominent Early Days of Camp of Candelaria.

T. Lacey Jones, well known mining man of Tonopah, received a message Saturday, informing him of the death of his father, J. M. Jones, which occurred in San Francisco that morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. William Hogan.

J. M. Jones was a pioneer of Nevada, and located in Pioche in the early '70s. He was born in New York City 83 years ago, and fought with the Union army throughout the Civil war. After coming to Nevada and locating at Pioche, he later took up his residence at Candelaria, where he resided for a number of years, and will be remembered by most of the early day residents of that once booming mining camp.

At Candelaria he engaged in business, and became active in politics, being one of the leaders of the republican party. He was a man of great intellect and was termed in those days by his friends, "the walking encyclopedia." He was one of the best read men in the state and at all times kept advised of the times as a result of his studious character.

In the early '90s Mr. Jones removed to Carson City where he remained a number of years, later taking up his residence at Tonopah and Goldfield. From here he removed to California, where he had resided ever since.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge at Carson City and had been affiliated with the order for 57 years. He is survived by two sons, T. Lacey Jones, of Tonopah; R. M. Jones, of Weed, Calif.; and Mrs. William Hogan, of San Francisco. T. Lacey Jones left here yesterday morning for the coast in order to be present at the funeral of his father which took place this morning under the auspices of the Masons of that city.

There is to be no more idleness in Tonopah with the easy-going element living off the earnings of fallen women, according to an edict issued Sunday night by Chief of Police O. H. Smith, to his deputies. Outside gamblers will also be cured and made to do manual labor, providing they frequent the restricted district. As a result of this edict issued by the chief, three men were lodged in the county jail upon the charge of vagrancy, and they will be given the privilege of shaking the dust of Tonopah from their feet or of helping to beautify the town. The men arrested were Sam Larson, Al Riverbank and Albert Minicio. Larson and Riverbank came into the limelight last week when they caused another man to be arrested upon the charge of assault. Larson was arrested on the charge of interfering with an officer and paid a fine of $50.

Inglewood Constables Halt Mar-

HOME BEING INVESTIGATED

Fully Hundred Men Participated in Raid and Wounded Men Were Outpost Guards.

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, April 24.—While county officials are shaping a plan for an exhaustive investigation into the raid by masked men at Inglewood, a suburb of this city, Sunday morning, in which three peace officers participating in the raid were shot, one dying shortly afterward, Leonard Rueger, a deputy sheriff, one of the raiders, was passing through a critical stage at Inglewood hospital. M. B. Mosher, of Inglewood, is dead, and his son, Walter, a deputy constable, was slightly wounded. The two Mosher and Rueger were outpost guards of upwards of 100 men who raided, in masks, the residence at Inglewood, Frank Warner, night marshal of Inglewood, was summoned by a telephone message reporting a big hold-up. He was stopped and told by the trio to throw up his hands, with threats of death. After exhibiting his official badge, he opened fire, killing the constable and wounding the deputies.

Further development was the statement by the leader of a negro colony of 45,000 persons here that members of his race had designated grounds for defense, and were arming to prevent mob aggression. The spokesman said the negroes feared the next move of the masked raiders might be directed against them.

The residence of Mathias and Fido, Elouyen was the scene and the brothers were kidnapped after the former's wife was treated roughly, and the two daughters subjected to indignities. The ostensible purpose of the raid was to obtain information against the Elyouyen family for the alleged illicit sale of liquors. The district attorney announced that William S. Coburn was grand goliath of the Ka Kux Klan and W. G. Price king klaner, will be summoned to testify at the inquest of the body of Mosher Tuesday morning. The district attorney said that apparently the shooting of the three men by the marshal was justified. The younger Mosher, at the hospital, exonerated the marshal.

The decision to call Coburn is based on his activities on the night of the raid when he appeared on the scene within half an hour after the shooting of the Mosher.

O. K. REED, ranchman and stock man of the Kawich range, is a business visitor to Tonopah.
